BRIDGE WORK STARTED UPON HIWAY TO PARK

Contractor Here With Materials For Two
Crews

ARE PLANTING TREES

Program to Beautify Highways Of The County

W. S. Crawford moved materials to the highway east of Canyon yesterday preparatory to start construction on the bridges and culverts on this road. He brought the first material here Sunday from a contract which he was completing near Vega.

Mr. Crawford has 110 working days in which to complete his contract.

Resident Engineer E. H. Gohmert is pleased with the progress which has been made on this road District Engineer W. J. Van London and State Engineer G. B. Gilchrist were here this week, and expressed appreciation of the progress which had been made. Mr. Gilchrist was on a tour of inspection of all work being done in West Texas.

Plans have been sent to Austin for topping the highway as soon as the bridge work is completed, states Mr. Gohmert. He has received no word as to when this work will be done, but it will likely follow the completion of the construction work.

Two crews will be started by Mr. Crawford, one at the Tierra Blanca, and the other at the bridge east of the Marshall place over Timber Creek.

The caliche base is being put on the fill east of Tierra Blanca, and will be placed on the west side of the creek as soon as the fill is completed at this point.

Crews of men are digging holes preparatory to planting trees along the highways of the county. This program is under the direction of the state plan for beautifying the highway system of the state. The trees will be grouped at intervals, rather than line the highways.

It is likely that widening of No. 9 through Canyon will be started south from the Santa Fe viaduct within a short time, but no time has been set for this work. This work will probably be determined by the continuation of CWA appropriations, and the number of men who are allowed to continue at work in the county.

P. T. A. To Hold Open Meeting High School, Feb. 15th

The P. T. A. will hold an important meeting at the high school building on Thursday night, Feb. 15th at 7:30 o'clock.

Prof. S. H. Condon will speak on the question, "What Can We Expect from the Present Generation."

The high school band will furnish music.

A reception, with refreshment, will follow the program to be held in the gymnasium.

$34,578.00 of Final Wheat Money Here

Total Wheat Money Distributed Amounts to $192,942

Two shipments of wheat checks were received Monday and Tuesday amounting to $34,578.00. Distribution started Tuesday afternoon, when many wheat farmers came to the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch to sign up for their allotment checks.

This makes the total of $182,942.00 which has been distributed to the wheat farmers of Randall county, with a total of 718 checks being distributed.

This winds up the first payment on the wheat allotment except for 11 contracts which were held up by the government for various reasons.

To Plainview

J. S. HAND

J. S. (Pinky) Hand left Tuesday with his family for Plainview, where he has been transferred by the Magnolia Company. Mr. Hand has had charge of the company's business in Canyon for several years and was promoted in making the move to Plainview. He will have charge of the district warehouse which serves the central plains section.

Felix Pierce has been named to assume Mr. Hand's place with the Company in Canyon.

Five Visitors At Rotary Club Give Program Tuesday

Five visitors were called upon Tuesday to furnish the program for the Canyon Rotary Club. Rev. Chas. L. Dickey was in charge of the program, calling upon the guests.

Rev. F. H. Dawson of Canadian brought greetings from the Rotary Club in that city. Rev. J. H. Boles of Tulsa, member of the Kiwanis Club, brought greetings from that city. Dr. R. Thomsen of Amarillo took advantage of Rev. Dickey to the delight of the club. Mayor Ross Rogers told of his experience in Washington last week, and Herman H. Pipkin of Amarillo discussed Rotary and every day living.

Other visitors of the club were Rev. W. H. Bessire and Rev. J. R. Sharp of Canyon; Harvey W. Allen and W. S. Norman of Amarillo. Plainview Rotary Club will be entertained here next Tuesday night, the visitors giving the program.

A Rotary play will be given in the near future, and a program at the CCC camp will be put on by the club March 2.

Levi Cole announced that a Boy Scout program would be put on in Amarillo Friday and Saturday night. In the ticket sale, the local Scouts receive 60% of the proceeds.

The resignations of Pinky Hand and J. Roy Moses were received with regret.

CANYON PIONEER DIES AT HOME IN POST, TEXAS

C. P. Shelnutt was called to Post, Monday, to attend the bedside of his father, H. T. Shelnutt, who was seriously ill and who died before his son could reach him.

H. T. Shelnutt resided in Canyon from 1908 to 1918 and had many friends here. Had Mr. Shelnutt lived until April 16, he would have been 87 years of age.

Mrs. N. E. McIntire returned Wednesday evening from Longview where she has been visiting her daughter.

POLL TAXES IN COUNTY JUMP TO TOTAL 2044

Increase Greatly Over
Voting Strength of 1933

CAR TAGS SLOW

More Than Thousand In County Not Buy
Licenses

Poll taxes in Randall county showed a decided increase this year when 2044 receipts were issued as compared with only 1300 last year. The number issued this year almost equals the highest number ever issued in the county in 1931.

More than a thousand car owners failed to procure their 1934 tags before midnight of Feb. 1st. Highway officers were at first advised to make arrest of those who had failed to secure these license plates, but later the order was modified. The bill pending yesterday in the legislature to postpone payment date stopped payments entirely.

So far only 1359 car plates and 246 truck plates have been issued. Payment of property taxes seem to have exceeded that of last year in spite of the homestead exemption which is in effect this year for the first time.

A complete check-up of tax payment during the past week has been impossible in either the office of County Collector R. N. Barnett or School Collector John Guthrie.

Cows Listed For TB Test Before Thursday, Feb. 15

We wish to call attention to the annual Tuberculosis test of dairy cows to be made this month.

Any owners of cows in Canyon who desire to test for T. B. any time soon are urged to list their cows at the County Agent's office before the 15th, if they want to save money on the testing.

The milk ordinance of the city of Canyon and also of Amarillo requires that cows be tested for tuberculosis once each year.

This annual testing pool saves cow owners part of the expense of testing. The test is conducted only once each year. Those who do not test at this time each season, generally must pay more for testing.

W. H. UPCHURCH,
County Agent.

Thompson Re-Elected

C. L. THOMPSON

C. L. Thompson of Canyon was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the Panhandle Hardware and Implement Association at the meeting held in Amarillo Monday and Tuesday. The Silver anniversary of the association was observed in one of the largest programs ever held for the association.

Mr. Thompson has been secretary of the association for 16 years, and is considered one of the best hardware executives in the nation. His enthusiasm for the association's work is reflected in the splendid programs and attendance at the annual meetings.

Ex-Buffs Will Meet Tonight at Burton Gym in Great Battle

The basketball game which promises to be the greatest of the season will be played tonight at Burton Gym between the Ogden Boosters and the Metzgers Dairy. Both squads is composed very largely of ex-Buffalo stars, and the game will be a compliment to Coach Sam D. Burton, who developed the greatest teams in the Southwest.

The Ogden team is composed of Fortenberry, Colvin, Comer and Bob Clark, all of last year's squad, together with the pick of the Wichita Henry's of last year.

Davis Hill is coaching Metzgers, and will call upon the Hale Bros., Lowes, Jones, Gerald, Brown, Carl York, Fuller, Crump, Pierson, and probably several other ex-Buffs who are in this territory.

The game was moved from Amarillo to Canyon in order to accommodate the big crowd which is expected for the game.

STORK SPECIAL

A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Cundiff yesterday morning.

Mrs. J. L. Hefner, and Mrs. Harry Inman and sons, of Crosbyton are visiting relatives here this week.

ATTENDANCE IN W. T. BOOSTED BY 92 STUDES

Junior College Men In-

3 PROJECTS OKED

Second Semester Work
Gets Under Way
At College

Opening of the second semester of W. T. brought 92 new students. Up to yesterday 722 students had paid their fees in the college and 250 in the training school. The new students to enroll will hold up the attendance for this semester and will make the total of attendance larger than last semester in spite of those who were forced to withdraw for economic reasons.

Dr. Hill called at the PWA offices in Fort Worth and found that three of the W. T. projects had been approved, but none sent to Washington. Hearings on the other two will likely be held this week.

Six transfers from the Amarillo Junior College, all members of this year's state champion football team, improve the football outlook for next year. All of the men will be eligible to play on the Buffalo squad next fall.

While attending the regents' meeting in Austin, information was given the presidents of the state institution regarding the new plan for the government to assist worthy students by providing jobs. This scheme will be worked out during the coming week.

Bicycle Is Stripped and Fishing Tackle Stolen Last Evening

While the family of Dr. H. A. Brown attended the basketball game last night, thieves entered the garage, taking $350 worth of fishing tackle, and stripping the bicycle of Harry, Jr.

Dr. Brown had a very complete outfit of fishing tackle, practically all of which was taken.

The bicycle was taken into the alley, where the handle bars, saddle, pedals, light and other pieces were removed.

Officers were at work on the case this morning, and a liberal reward is offered for information leading to arrest of the guilty parties.

Moses to Stamford

J. ROY MOSES

J. Roy Moses will leave this week for Stamford where he will assume management of the M. E. Moses Co. of that city. He has been manager of the local store since 1929 when the company opened here. The move is a promotion to a larger store, the Stamford institution being one of the largest in the string of eight owned by the company.

Mr. Moses has been very active in civic affairs in Canyon, and is now president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Moses headed the book shower for the County library held last week. She will remain in Canyon with her children until next week.

Mrs. Ruby Murphy, sister of Mr. Moses, will return to the Canyon store from Borger where she has been since last year.

Dozen Apply To Become Postmas- ter at Canyon

The Civil Service Commission has made public the list of applicants who are asking to be appointed postmaster of Canyon. About 20 application blanks were handed out at the local office, but only twelve finally filed in Washington for the position.

The following are listed as applicants: John H. Wright, Samuel M. Bond, Mary E. Bull, Annis E. Smith, Jessie DeGraffenried, Berle E. Mayfield, Charles R. Fleisher, Guy J. Harp, John A. Guthrie, S. B. McClure, W. G. Harris, and J. I. Ballengee.

While no definite information has been given out by the Civil Service Commission, it is reported that in other towns, a representative of the commission will visit the local community, interviewing those who were given as reference by the applicants, and compiling such other information as the government desires regarding each applicant. There are no examinations of the applicants. This commission will select three names from which the final choice will be made, after conferring with Congressman Marvin Jones.

It is likely that announcement of the new postmaster will be made a few days before the term of Oscar Hunt expires on March 18.

MRS. ETHEL FLEMMING DIED AT AMARILLO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Ethel V. Flemming, 49, died Friday morning at an Amarillo hospital, following an illness of several months. Mrs. Flemming lived at the John Weyen home for several years.

The body was sent to Camp Point, Illinois, for interment.

HOG CONTRACT WILL COMPLETE INCOMING WEEK

Farmers Called to Meet in Four County
Districts

ORGANIZE COUNTY

Voluntary Movement Is Up to Farmers of
County

A series of four meetings is in progress in Randall county being conducted by County Agent W. H. Upchurch for the purpose of explaining the hog contracts which are being presented the farmers by the government.

The first meeting at the court house Monday night was attended by 80 farmers. The second meeting was held at Sunny Hill last night.

Meetings will be held at Zita tonight and at Umbarger Friday night.

Local committees are being formed in the four districts which will complete the contracts with the farmers. As soon as the contracts are all in, a permanent county organization will be formed.

No date has been set by the government for this work to be completed, but it is pointed out that the sooner the contracts are completed and sent to Washington, the sooner will the farmers receive the government checks.

County agents are advised that the hog control movement is purely voluntary on the part of the farmers, and that no intensive campaign is to be put on as in the case of cotton and wheat control. Farmers who are interested must attend one of the meetings, or sign the contracts at the office of the county agent in order to participate in this movement. Those interested in Randall county hope to complete the contracts during the coming week.

Housing Survey To Be Completed Dur- ing Coming Week

Field work on the housing survey will be completed during the coming week according to the schedule being maintained by the workers. Representatives of the survey completed Randall county last week, and are finishing up the 2,000 farm homes in surrounding counties.

Office work is supposed to be completed by next Thursday, but this will be impossible, stated Miss McClellan, director of the housing survey. She has asked for more time in which to complete this work, and it will likely be granted since CWA work will certainly be extended after February 15th by an appropriation bill which is pending in congress.

HONORS T. J. MARSHALL

A musical program was given by the Canyon Novelty Orchestra in honor of T. J. Marshall Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hawes. Mr. Marshall has been at Kirkland for several months on business. Orchestra music and singing were enjoyed by all present.

Bird Collection At Museum Very Large

Carlander Makes Observation in Value of
Birds

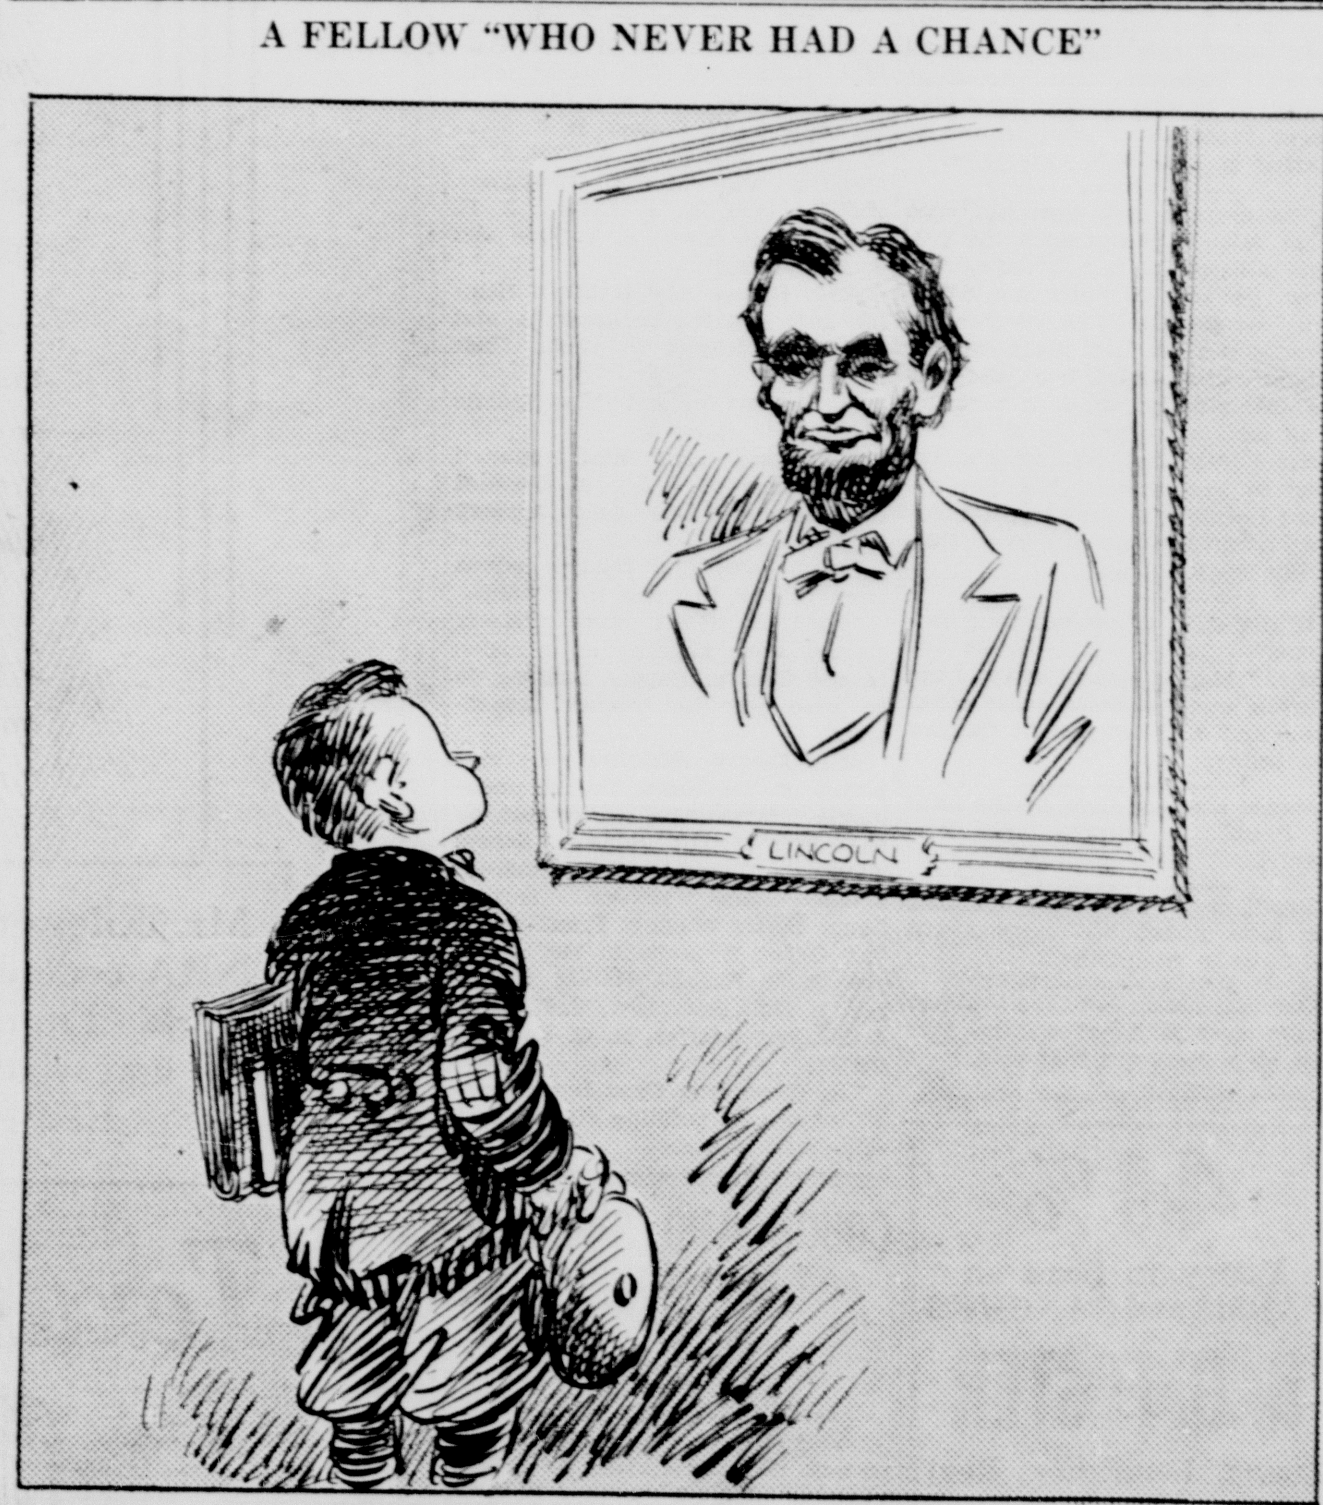

The collection of Panhandle birds in the basement of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum is attracting much attention since robins, wrens, juncos, and meadow larks are singing everywhere and reminding bird-lovers that spring is not far off.

Kenneth Carlander spent most of his time from June 14 to September 15, 1933, collecting birds, eggs, and nests for the Museum. He was sometimes assisted by his uncle, Guy Carlander, of Amarillo.

During the three months young Carlander secured 107 specimens of 99 different kinds of birds. Of this number 39 were suitable for mounting and were prepared for exhibit by L. E. Sims of Canyon. Another 39 were prepared as "scientific skins" for use of the biology department of the College. All of these specimens, added to the mounted birds which the Museum already possessed, make it possible for people, and especially boys and girls who are interested in bird life to learn the names and markings of the many birds which can be seen at all months of the year in Northwest Texas.

Worked Under Government Permit
Kenneth Carlander, a high school graduate and now a freshman at the University of Minnesota, has made bird-study his hobby since he was a small boy. In order to pursue his study in a truly scientific way he secured a permit from the Federal Government to shoot (Continued on last page)

Of course those members of the State Senate who had the courage of their convictions to vote against an extension of auto license payments, will be severely criticised, and perhaps some of them defeated for office. The fact remains that they did exactly as they should. There was no necessity for extending payment time. The people of Texas are demanding that highways be built immediately—not next month, or the month afterward. The highway department can build these roads only when the people give them the money. The counties retain much of the automobile license money, and today much of the CWA road work depends upon the various counties having the money to buy materials. Those who criticize the Senate for refusing to extend the license payment date are very likely the ones who are eternally cursing the local and state governments for not getting everything done which they seek. The best thing the legislature can do is to quit meddling with this tax business, except to the extent of passing a just and equitable collection bill which will bring into the treasury a greater part of the $120,000,000 taxes now delinquent. A large part of this delinquency is due by persons who could pay if they were forced to, but who are waiting year after year while the legislature remits past due interest and penalties.

The one question which will be paramount in the race for United States Senator and Governor of Texas this year will be the prohibition question. The question is being raised by the anti-prohibitionists, and will be kept in the foreground for the purpose of defeating some of the candidates in the race. Young Joe Bailey will make the race for the senate very largely upon the anti program; several candidates for Governor will seek to make this the paramount issue. Politics will revert to the olden days. All of the aches and pains of the depression will be overlooked, and all of the remedies for recovery which might be discussed will be shoved to the back ground while the political leaders discuss prohibition. What a shame that this question should be the great political issue of the day when able men, clear thinking leaders are so badly needed.

It is terrible to think that so many people in a nation will take advantage of a relief measure which was started in good faith to help those in distress. CWA is under fire because it has been abused in many places. Rather than a dole, the federal government established CWA in order that men could be given jobs, allowing them to make a living for their families, rather than drawing upon the federal treasury for mere sustenance during these trying times. But many dishonest people have taken advantage of the situation, and have grafted not only upon the unfortunate folks, but likewise stole money from the government. The day of reckoning is at hand. You may break many of Uncle Sam's laws and get

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

The Success of the Chicago Bears' Game, and the Vines-Tilden Barnstorming Tour, Is Building Up That Pro Lure

BY PHILIP MARTIN

THE glittering goddess of gold has favored two of America's greatest amateur sports in the last decade, and today we find football and tennis going professional in a big way.

News reaches us that the Chicago Bears, winner of the National Professional Football League championship, played a game on the Pacific coast against a team native to that section and drew some 35,000 fans. That indicates that pro football is well established, and that prospects for a series of winter games on the coast every year are rosy.

But along with that news comes information that Bill Tilden, playing against the recently turned pro, Ellsworth Vines, has pulled more than 50,000 fans through the turnstiles in seven games, clicking the cash register for nearly $75,000.

Pro tennis, decried by amateur tennis fathers since "Cash and Carry" Pyle first ballyhooed the game in 1926, is coming into its own. It has developed into such a big idea under the master hand of Bill Tilden that he and Vines plan to make a 60,000-mile tour of the world playing against each other.

Not only has it enlisted Vines, leading U. S. amateur last year, but also the great Henri Cochet, French tennis marvel, who joined the ranks and will be seen in this country soon with the Tilden troupe.

And Henri didn't join up for chicken feed!

If not unseated before the year ends, two fight champions will jump their thrones to wage war in other divisions. They are Freddie Miller, feather king, and Barney Ross, lightweight ruler.

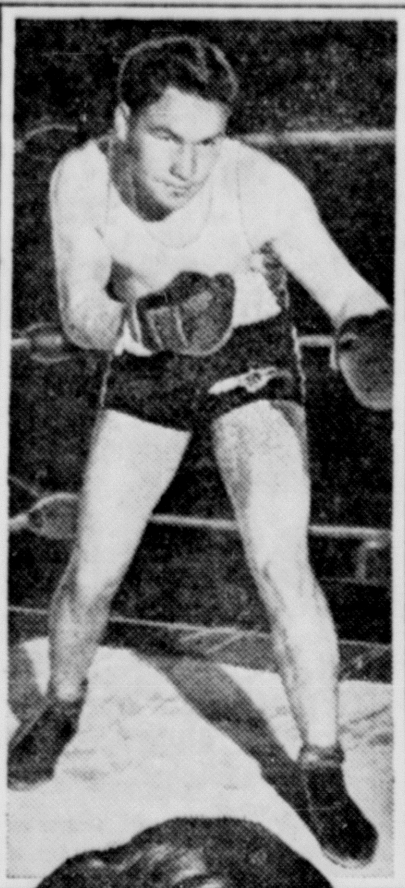

Miller is fast outgrowing his division. The Cincinnati scrapper is putting on weight alarmingly, and needs only a few pounds to step over into Ross' circuit.

But before Freddie gets there, Ross may have abdicated to search for glory in the welter circles. Barney has offered Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver, B. C., crown-wearer, $35,000 to meet him in defense of the division's title. If that doesn't draw Jimmy out of retirement into which he went after winning the crown from away with it, but steal a dime, and the prison gates are standing wide open to receive you.

Congress has passed a bill forbidding defaulting nations the right to sell securities in the United States. This country has played the role of a sucker nation long enough. The war debt is a small thing in comparison to the money which has been extracted from the people of this country by sale of worthless bonds of European nations. The remarkable thing is that Americans seem to enjoy being gipped by foreign nations. Billions of dollars have been taken on worthless bonds, backed by nothing except the salesman's vague statement that they would probably be worth a much greater price at a later day. Americans should invest their money in American securities.

Ogden Mills, slated to be the Republican opponent of President Roosevelt in 1936, came out to Kansas last week to tell the farmers what a mess Roosevelt was making of things up in Washington, and what terrible power had been given into the hands of the President. Mr. Mills is a true disciple of the do-nothing policy

Young Corbett III last summer, nothing will.

THE new lively ball to be used by the National League for the first time this year may have an adverse effect on the Giants, world champions last year.

As was acknowledged, the Giants' pitching staff, operating with the old National loop horsehide, was the mainstay of the team and of Hoover, which contributed so much to the economic chaos which President Roosevelt found when he assumed office last March. Mr. Mills was not a very highly qualified man to start throwing brick bats at the Roosevelt administration, especially among the farmers of the nation.

Wasn't that a wonderful tribute paid to President Roosevelt last week? Never has a nation paid such complete homage to a president as the United States did on his birthday. Roosevelt has the confidence of the people of this nation. The statesmen in Washington are as completely at sea in regard to a solution of our economic distress as are the people at home; therefore, there is just one thing to do, give the man a chance who has the courage to lead out even into new and unexplored paths. However, the President seems to have a pretty good idea about those paths even before he started on some new enterprise.

The average man does not care what value is placed upon the dollar. All that he is interested in is what he can do with the dollar after he gets it. The government figures that it has made several billion dollars profit from the dollar manipulation, in fact, a sufficient amount to pay for all of the relief money that has been distributed in the nation. The government has such a large gold reserve that it can back up any price that it sets on the dollar.

If you want to protect your own property in Canyon, trade at home. Money spent away from Canyon goes to build some other town, and does not benefit Canyon one penny.

People who use their brains have no trouble in keeping their tongues still.

Don't worry about the scandals you have missed because you will not have to repeat them.

HOW WOMEN
CAN WIN MEN
AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today, 25c at drug stores. Refuse "something just as good" for it may gripe, loosen teeth or scald rectum. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. © 1933, C.M. Co.

Unusual Woman Is First Lady, Whose Energy Matches That of Husband

FOR almost a year, President Roosevelt has held the center of the national stage, with the spotlight of an intense public interest playing upon him and his New Deal policies.

In the stage shadows, a woman—Eleanor Roosevelt—has been flitting about, getting things done in a way just as remarkable as that of her illustrious husband.

Beyond the knowledge that she somehow is different from other First Ladies, a large portion of the American public fails to realize just how unusual a woman is Eleanor Roosevelt.

Since last March, many a one-time First Lady must have stirred uneasily in her grave. Cold White House tradition always has had it that a First Lady might be seen—not too frequently, of course—but never heard publicly.

She occasionally might appear at formal functions and opening of charity bazaars. Nothing will show how different Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is from a run-of-mine First Lady than a review of her activity since she arrived at the capital.

IN that time she has traveled from coast to coast, from Maine to Georgia, and even into Canada. For little local trips about Washington, her little blue roadster suffices.

On these drives, she usually is accompanied only by her little black Scottie, "Maggie," or perhaps by a woman companion. She spurns the protection of secret service men.

On trips to New York or farther, she may catch a Pullman; or she may fly. To visit her son, Elliott, last June, for instance, she took the first transcontinental air trip ever made by a president's wife.

These pictures of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt knitting, cantering and motoring hint at her marvelous versatility.

Besides being seen frequently and everywhere, Mrs. Roosevelt has been heard in the same manner. Like her husband, she has frequent press conferences.

She publicly has addressed several national club conferences in various big cities. During auto tours, far and wide, she has talked with copper and coal miners, farm and jobless women, and other depression sufferers.

SHE is known to have had a hand in creating several constructive phases of the New Deal, and she is suspected of more. Some months ago, to cut down production, the government was considering grinding up little pigs for fertilizer purposes.

Mrs. Roosevelt, it is reported, wondered vocally why millions on the relief list might not welcome pork on their diet list. It wasn't strange, therefore, that Uncle Sam soon after started feeding such surpluses to the needy.

Unemployed women at a Bear Mountain, N. Y., camp, and West

Virginia miners who have been getting homes from the government on an easy-payment basis owe their thanks to the First Lady.

Another brain-child of Mrs. Roosevelt—a Maryland subsistence project—now is under consideration.

HOSTESS duties at the White House occupy much of her time. Then, she has her magazine writing (a book she has written is in its second edition). And, if she finds herself growing restless, there is her furniture factory at Hyde Park to administer.

Her personal mail, running something like 400 letters a day, is cleared away smoothly. Ditto with her housewifely duties, which, thanks to a staff grown efficient through several Washington administrations, are few.

It has been difficult to learn the secret of her tremendous endurance.

When asked, "How do you do it?" the First Lady always smiles cheerfully and says, "Oh, I'm good and strong."

Three W. T. Studes Take West Point Exams Recently

Of the nine young men of Amarillo and the Panhandle who recently took an entrance examination for Annapolis and West Point, three were students of W. T.

The test was given on Jan. 6, and began at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in the Federal building. It was given by C. M. Tyler, secretary of the local Civil Service commission, assisted by M. E. Dillard. The time required to finish the examination was seven and one-half hours.

The three W. T. students, G. P. Bishop, Jr., a junior, Robert Rowan, a senior, and J. M. Davis, a sophomore, have received no word as to who passed the examination.

Fred Brown

(The Grocer)

Says...

The Same Principles Apply to Both Groceries and Gas!

FRED BROWN, the grocer, heard the other day that the average family spends 10 times as much for groceries as for gas. It brought to his mind another comparison—that both businesses must operate on the same fundamental principles. In selling a dozen oranges, Fred's retail price covers their cost, his expenses in handling them and a small profit. If his customers demanded oranges at a price each thought he should pay, the grocer often would lose money, because many would not appreciate all the costs involved in selling oranges, or other food items. As it is, people buy oranges on their value to the customer and both buyer and seller benefit. Fred favors gas rates being controlled by law, but believes all factors of expense to The Gas Company should be considered in arriving at these rates, and some thought should be given to the value of gas.

The Browns are typical of families in your neighborhood who operate their own businesses. They are familiar with the many costs involved in selling the products in which they are interested, and appreciate the fact that their customers buy goods for their value rather than on price alone.

Considering the value of gas, the small place it holds in the family budget, and the fact that good service depends upon sound business principles—you will appreciate gas for the bargain it is.

BONNETS, SPRING'S HARBINGERS, KEEP MILADY'S HEAD BUSY ABOUT WHAT TO PUT ON MILADY'S HEAD

BY HARRIET

SPRING'S just around the corner and there's no surer sign of it than the smart new hats which are breaking into the limelight right now.

You don't necessarily have to be wearing a spring suit or ensemble when you don a new hat. Every woman knows that a new bonnet will give the old midseason outfit an interesting verve.

Off-the-face hats, some with halo brims—variations of the Breton and the bicorne models—are regarded as indispensables for the coming season.

Halo brims flatter very young girls and women with regular features. They give that unsophisticated, angelic appearance which always is appealing.

WEAR a sailor hat with a forward tilt. And keep your off-the-face hat toward the back of your head.

If you're going to get a felt hat, forget about black. Navy blue is the most fashionable color right now. After that, there are all the pastel tones, and many bright colors. If you must have a neutral-colored hat, why not get beige or pale gray instead of black?

Combinations of felt and straw are in vogue. You can have a felt brim and a straw crown, or the other way round. Straw sailors with incrustations of felt in contrasting shades are novelties that women love.

THE small brown rolled sailor has a very shallow crown, accented by a brown grosgrain ribbon band and finished with an ornament made of three shades of ribbon—poppy, chartreuse, and brown. The hat is faced with chartreuse rayon grosgrain. It would be becoming to almost any girl and flattering to wear with the new tweeds.

More Books Are Added to Randall Public Library

The Book Reception which was held last week for the Public Library was announced for the hours between three and six on Thursday, but the actual shower has continued every day that the library has been open since, according to Miss Fannie Malone, the librarian. Many people, she says, were reminded of books which they can spare, by the books which their neighbors brought to the shower. Even small children have offered to part with some of their book-treasures in order to allow other little folks the privilege of enjoying them.

A subscription to the Literary Digest has been given to the library.

According to the librarian, an average of twenty-five people are visiting the reading room each day, and the circulation of books is very heavy for a newly opened library.

Each week a partial list of the books received at the Book Reception will be published, and readers are invited to clip these lists so that they will know what recently acquired books they can secure from the library.

Some of the Books received are: Adams: Mehtable.

Appleton: Tom Swift and his motor boat.

Beach: Flowing Gold.

Brown: Training for world friendship.

Carr: The Stir of Nature.

Carroll: Alice in Wonderland.

De Wolfe: The House of good taste.

Dreischer: Book of good manners.

Ferber: The girls.

Fitzhugh: The Forest Ranger.

Gregory: The Short Out.

Hawthorne: Twice Told Tales.

Hedge: Common Sense in Politics.

Lovell: Italian Cities.

Roosevelt's Silver Move Brings Stir To 'Ghost' Towns of Far West

To many "ghost towns" of the west, such as the one pictured below, where bleak desolation has reigned for many years, President Roosevelt's silver proclamation has restored the pulse of activity. Two of the nation's foremost silver champions, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, left, of Montana, and Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, are shown at right.

A NEW silver boom is sweeping the west. President Roosevelt's order that the Treasury buy 24,000,000 ounces of silver annually for the next four years has restored color and activity to mines and mining towns, anemic in recent years.

Even "ghost towns," uninhabited since the boom days, have begun to stir. For the presidential order, establishing a price of 64½ cents an ounce, means that at last silver may be mined at a profit.

Never in its history has the value of silver sunk as low as in recent years. Before Biblical days until after Columbus, the price of silver always commanded about one-tenth the price of gold.

In the 17th century, the ratio was 1 to 14, when silver sold for $1.30 an ounce. An ounce of silver brought at least a dollar until the latter part of the 19th century.

But demonetization of silver in 1893 and enthronement of gold started the white metal on its downward path. In recent months it has sold for as low as 35 cents an ounce.

Few are living who recall the hectic silver era when bonanzas flashed like meteors into existence; when towns and millionaires were created almost overnight, and when mine names like "Comstock," "Little Pittsburgh," and "Ophir" were bywords.

Great fortunes loomed and disappeared to the tune of "Easy come, easy go." Others, like that of the Mackays, provided foundations for great American industries of later years.

The glamour of that generation never may return, but it seems probable that silver may recover much of its former prestige. Cheered by their first notable victory in years, silver champions, led by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, will wage a fight in Congress for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

BESIDES its benefit to western states, one of the chief arguments in favor of rehabilitation of silver has been the effect it will have on trade with the Orient, China and India. It is estimated control almost half of the silver mined since the discovery of America.

This hoarding of silver by Orientals has several explanations. Their savings are not invested in land because with their teeming millions in population, there is not enough land to go around. Gold of course, is too rare; and they always have been wary of paper money.

If the United States and other world powers get together on some scheme of silver remonetization, the value of silver will go up. As it increases, so, claim silver advocates, will the purchasing power of the Oriental nations; and these vast markets, brought to life, will benefit the world at large.

More Books For Boys Placed In Public Library

The boys of Randall County were kept in mind when the book-purchasing committee of the Woman's Book Club made its last order, and seven new books were added to the public library, to which annual tickets can be purchased for $1.00.

This group of books includes "Penrod and Sam," and "Penrod and Jashew" by Booth Tarkington; "Puzzey and his Neighbors," by Jose F. Nonidez; "Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Minute Man of '33," by Belle Moses; "Top-of-the-World Stories for Boys and Girls";

"The Boy Scouts of Bob's Hill" and "The Bob's Hill Cave Boys," by Charles Pierce Burton.

As rapidly as possible the public library will become well balanced with books for children of all ages, and with books of all kinds for adults.

Bufs Take Game Arizona Teachers Here Last Night

The Buff squad hit the trail for a 46-32 victory over the Arizona State Teachers Lumber Jacks at Burton Gym last night. The best exhibition of basketball was shown by the Bufs as they piled up a lead from the start, relinquishing a safe margin only one time during the fray.

Capt. Stroud was the shining light. He made goal after goal until he had chalked up 11 field goals and four charity counters, for a total of 26 points.

Working with Stroud, the entire Buffalo line-up, which played the entire game without substitutions, shut off the Lumber Jacks successfully, all except Forward Morrow, who accounted for 12 points to be second high scorer.

Richards, Buffalo guard, was also one of the outstanding players on the court. Besides his fine defensive work, he accounted for nine points, to be the Bufs' second high scorer. Phillips, guard, made seven.

Plateau Singing To Meet Feb. 18th at Trigg School House

The Randall County Semi-Annual Singing convention will be held at the Trigg school house, two miles west of Hollywood, on Sunday, Feb. 18th.

An invitation is extended to all citizens to come for the day, bringing sandwiches, pie and cake. Miss Sparta Holland is secretary of the association.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Martin Leaves Himself Wide Open With Prediction That Tommy Loughran Will Lace Carnera in Their Miami Tilt

BY PHILIP MARTIN

YOUR friend and correspondent now will go out on a limb and pick Tommy Loughran to be the next heavyweight champion of the world!

To all the jeers and yelps of derision from those who think otherwise, I only can remark that this is a land of free press, and that if you don't believe me, go bet your dough on Primo Carnera—and you'll probably be richer for the action.

When the match first was scheduled, this writer couldn't see any reason why it was arranged. The picture was one of a ponderous giant cutting down a slim, dancing figure at will. But so-called sober reflection changes the picture to one of a mosquito boring into the thick hide of an elephant to score enough points to cop the battle.

EVER since Primo won the heavyweight crown from the aged squire, Jack Sharkey, followers of the champ have asserted that he has mastered the art of boxing. If this were true, he would be more than a match for the Philadelphia phantom.

But it isn't true. Primo has developed considerably since his first invasion of America. But his dogs are just as big and his body is still bulky enough to cause him to get tangled up in his underpinning when the fray gets fast and furious.

In meeting Loughran, he meets the master of them all at the art of fencing. Tommy's flicking left jab has no equal in the ring today.

If he can keep it in Primo's face often enough, he'll win walking away—because Carnera won't get close enough to connect with that "mystery" punch of his.

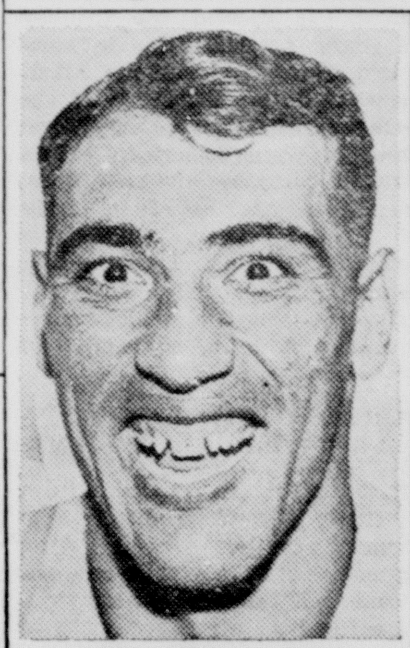

Another reason why Tommy will win is that this is his chance of chances. While he has ruled the light-heavyweights, Tommy's supreme ambition of being king of the upper class never has been realized.

Thwarted by Jack Sharkey a couple of years ago, he has been concentrating on the coming tilt with the Italian behemoth.

HE'LL be picking his all into those few rounds in Miami. He is training like never before to develop his wind and aging legs to a point where they'll last the route—for he knows he has little chance of pasting the big fellow into dreamland in any of the early rounds.

If he wins, Tommy probably will have just one more fight. He'll be sure to defend his title against any of them, and it is this department's belief that Baer, Schmeling, or Levinsky, three of the foremost challengers, can lick Carnera right now—and either of the three will be able to take Tommy if he finishes on the long end of his fight with Carnera.

If he loses, of course, it'll probably be his last fight. For the gentleman—he's all of that—hasn't been too careless with his dough; he knows he has about reached the end of the trail, and he has enough sense to realize that to carry on and absorb punishment for a few more years might cause him to lose what he has.

VOLUME NO. 8

CANYON, TEXAS FEBRUARY 8, 1934.

NUMBER 21

Cactus Cal

Mr. Terry's got a terrible habit of makin' the gum-chewers spit out their gum in spite of the fact that you haven't chewed it but a day. Now that's being down right extravagant—who'd want to spend a whole cent for a stick of gum and then not get to chew it any longer than that?

Why, gum is the most essential thing to an education. Imagine a high school graduate finishing a school and not know how to chew gum. That would be a slam on any high school to put out such an incompetent senior.

Now if I wuz a superintendent—and that isn't a bad idea, I'm thinkin' seriously uv applyin' fer that job next year.

As I wuz sayin'—if I wuz superintendent uv this school, I'd see that everyone got a stick uv gum as they enter the building, and a change uv flavors between classes. I know fer sure that by this method good public speakers could be developed, cause anyone who can talk with a mouth fulla gum is bound to be a good public speaker.

The Mid-Term test—if I wuz boss would consist uv such contests as who could chew their gum the loudest or who could pop their gum the most times in a minute, or who could get their mouth the fullest, etc.

Now down to bizzinus, I'm runnin' fer office, yeah!

I've lived in these parts ever since I wuz a youngen and I've paid my income tax regularly. I support the NRA 100%. I've always thought lots of the Eagles all the time. I advocate the use of chewin' gum in every class. I feel qualified fer the position as I have had many experiences in this line.

Your vote and influence appreciated.

Boys Lose To Tulia; Girls Win

Canyon High's Eagles lost to Tulia Hornets in a fast game Saturday night at Tulia by a score of 19-18, but the Eaglettes were more fortunate and managed to come out in the lead, the score standing 21-13 when the last whistle sounded.

The Eagles took the lead early in the first period but were unable to keep the Tulia players from hitting a few baskets as the time passed on. Butler, Hornet forward, led the scoring with 8 points, and was closely followed by Cosby, Hornet guard, Slack and Elliston, Eagle forward and center, respectively, each with 6 points.

The Eaglettes took the high score in the early part of the game and were leading at the end of the first by 14 to 3, but with four regulars on the bench during most of the last half, they were able to do little more than hold their own.

Lorenzo Wirt and Bob Orton went to the Canyon-Dimmitt game at Dimmitt.

Miss Jewell Foster went to Dumas over the week end.

Miss Erin Gamble spent the week end in Amarillo.

I. B. Carruth went to Lubbock Sunday.

Hampton Lisle went to the Tulia game at Tulia.

Estill Furlow and Raymond Bible went to the Tulia game.

P. T. A. Plans Big Day Next Friday; Condon to Speak

The Parent Teachers Association will have its next meeting, Feb. 14 in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. S. H. Condon of W. T. S. T. C., who will be the main speaker on the program, will speak on "What Can We Expect of the Boy and Girl of Today." Music will be furnished by students of the school.

All parents of school children are especially invited to visit all classes, Thursday, Feb. 14, to see how the school functions from day to day.

This day has been set aside by the P. T. A. as community day in the schools and for general meeting of all parents, regardless of membership in the Association. This visiting day will be followed by a meeting of the Parent Teachers Association that night.

No plea will be made for members for the Association. It is just a "get-together" meeting for parents.

H. S. Violin Choir Plays at Rally

The Violin Choir of Canyon High School played at a rally in the Presbyterian Church Tuesday, February 6. Two special numbers, "The Voice in the Old Village Choir," and "Living for Jesus" were presented at the Christian Endeavor Rally for the young people of the Presbyterian Church from all over the Panhandle, by the five violinists, Ruby Foster, Lena Wade Jennings, Lelabel Johnson, Betty Ruth Solomon, and Lorene Bessire, accompanied on the piano by Robbie Lee Foster.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Mr. Barker had a new car? That the Twamana Club gave Lee Christine Cousins a fruit shower?

That "Fat" Childers lost his boots? That someone swiped Lester Clouch's pants?

That rumors have spread over the school that a rule has been passed prohibiting the teachers to assign written lessons to pupils; it is necessary that this be passed because so many of the pupils are overworked?

That Canyon High School is now producing poets? That Carl Prichard had devised a new "curve system" for diagramming sentences?

That Mr. Jones actually blushed the other day? That it can't be decided whether or not sleeping classes should be established for those who wish to sleep during the last study hall?

That the junior and senior home economic club girls are going to entertain their mothers with a Valentine buffet supper next week?

Twenty Rings Are Received By The Seniors

Twenty senior rings were received Monday. The rings are a dull gold. An eagle adorns the fretwork with a large monogrammed "C" beneath it, on either side of which is a small "H" and "S". Canyon is printed beneath the school emblem in small letters. The fretwork and the lettering stand out in polished gold against a dull background. On the sides of the band, are printed 19-34.

Another order will be sent off soon for more rings.

Wesley Cox and Kenneth Black spent the week end on a farm near Tulia.

Sarah Bonnie Bourn spent the Week end in Amarillo.

Pauline Harris was in Amarillo Saturday.

Margaret Nicholas spent Saturday in Amarillo.

Virginia Burgan and Wilma Price spent Saturday night in UMBARGER.

WHY GET UP NIGHTS?

USE BUCHU AND GIN Make This 25c Test

It is as valuable to the bladder as castor oil to the bowels. Drives out impurities and excess acids which cause the irritation resulting in getting up nights, burning, frequent desire, leg pains and backache. On account of the alcohol use juniper oil from which gin is made. Ask for Bukets, the bladder laxative also containing buchu leaves, etc. After four days, if not pleased your druggist will return your 25c. You are bound to sleep better after this cleansing. City Pharmacy says Bukets is a best seller.

Appreciation Hour Heard by Grade School Children

The third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of the Grade School again heard the Music Appreciation Hour presented by Walter Damsch and his orchestra, Friday, Feb. 2. The program this time featured Fairy Tales in music.

The program was as follows: Review Number, Poika "Thunder and Lightning," by Strauss Jr. "Entrance of the Little Faun," from "Cydalise" by Pierre. "Sandman's Lullaby," from "Heimel and Gretel," by Humperdink. "Flight of the Bumble Bee," from the Russian fairy tale "Tsar Sultan" by Rimsky-Korsakov. "Summer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn.

In the Hall of the Mountain King, from "Peer Gynt," Suite No. 1, by Grieg.

Following the regular program the radio is left on and each time the Series B, also conducted by Walter Damsch and his orchestra, is heard by TB and 6A. This program is especially presented for children a little older.

Plan For Chapel Program Changed

The chapel meetings of the high school are becoming more and more of the students, by the students, and for the students. Beginning last Thursday, Armor Lee Greenfield was appointed to preside over the meetings instead of either the principal or superintendent, and the programs are to be given as much as possible by members of the student body.

Last year, the assembly meetings were in the hands of the president of the student council, but this year, as the president cannot attend chapel, Armor Lee has taken his place. Miss Greenfield brings the house to order, makes the necessary announcements, introduces the program and dismisses chapel.

By letting the students take leading parts in assembly it is believed they will take greater interest in the programs than heretofore. It also affords good training in acting and speaking before an audience.

Home Ec. Club Meet Wednesday at Brasuel Home

The freshman-sophomore Home Economics Club met Wednesday night at the home of Beulah Brasuel, 2011 Seventh Avenue for an entertainment and club meeting.

The program consisted of talks on "Desserts for a Valentine Party," and "Games for a Valentine Party." The group sang songs.

Carrying out the color scheme of pink and white, the hostess served refreshments of punch and cookies.

Grade Notes

The grade school is having its home room periods for February, featuring great men born in the month. The primary and intermediate departments will have programs which will be similar. In the primary department on the 12th and 22nd will be on Lincoln and Washington respectively. The intermediate department will have Lindbergh week Feb. 5-9, Valentine day the 14th, Good English week 15-21, Washington day the 22nd, and the 26, 27, and 28th, will be studies on Longfellow. Appropriate stories, poems and songs will compose these programs, paying honor to those famous men.

EAGLES ENJOY DRINKS AS CARRUTH'S GUESTS

After two weeks of suspense, the Canyon Eagles enjoyed a ten cent drink at the expense of Mr. Carruth, as a reward for defeating the W. T. high Calves in a hard-fought game of basketball.

BONERS

Jack Oldham (looking for Boners): Does anyone know any boners?

Lorene Bessire (very absent-mindedly): No, darling.

Miss Goodrich: Students, you may read Churchill's Crisis. O. M. Solomon: Who wrote it?

I always heard that Lincoln was shot in the back, but I saw this on Mickey's history paper: "Abraham Lincoln was shot between the acts."

Kate Eileen Donnell spent Saturday night at the Burgan home.

Mary Collins visited her sister in Friona over the week end.

Today's Chapel In Charge of C. H. S. Band

The chapel program, Thursday, February 8, will be opened by Armor Lee Greenfield, who will make the announcements; then she will turn the program over to the high school band.

Their program is as follows: Flyer—March Weber; Sully Night—Serenade Huff Band

Sniggle Time—Caprice Barroll; Clarinet Solo—Lorenzo Wirt; Evening Song—Mozart; Cornet Quartet, Mabel Schmitz, Bob Orton, Jack Pitts, and Florine Root.

Blue Moon—Waltz Ribble; Forward—March Chenette Band

EAGLETES LOST TO DIMMITT SEXTET

The Canyon Eaglettes again lost to the former state champion fene cagers from Dimmitt by a score of 35 to 25 in a game that was close until the half.

The Eaglettes had a one-point edge on the Dimmitt sextet at the half. Greenfield, guard for the Eaglettes fouled out early in the third, and the Eaglette defense was weakened. Smith, Dimmitt sharp-shooter, was by far high scorer of the evening with 20 points to her credit. Velma Crawford, was high scorer for the Eaglettes with 12 points.

Playing on the Bobcat floor at Dimmitt the Canyon Eagles again drubbed the Bobcats by a score of 38 to 12.

The Eagles had a good lead by the half, and the Eagles' reserves played the entire third period. Although the reserves were able to keep down the Bobcats' score, and chalk up a few points themselves, the first string was returned to the game early in the beginning of the last period.

Curtis Elliston and Speck Williams tied for scoring honors with 11 points, and Scoop Elliston gave a close second with 10 points.

Faculty Facts

Brown-eyed, black haired, Miss Lois Goodrich, instructor of English and journalism, sat in her English room dividing her time between a reporter, and six or seven English students who were doing some make-up work, when she began to tell a few incidents of her short but fascinating life.

Miss Goodrich was born in Stonewall County, Texas, at the 8th hour of the 8th month of the year. She was the third child of a family of nine. When she was five years old, she moved to Lynn county in a train of nine covered wagons. Perhaps one of the saddest times in her life was when her mother died when Miss Goodrich was only 14 years old.

The year she graduated from Tahoka High School, the Chamber of Commerce of Tahoka offered a $10 gold piece to the student who made the highest grades in high school. Miss Goodrich won the $10 gold piece. Besides this she was valedictorian and won a four year scholarship to any college in Texas.

She chose W. T. S. T. C. here. She worked her way through college. Miss Goodrich was president of the Sesame Literary Society; made the debate team; and belonged to the dramatic club.

Each summer for the last three summers she has spent at a girls' camp in Connecticut. At the end of the school term in May, she will take an air plane to Connecticut where she will take up her new job as director of "Life's" Camp.

Her most embarrassing moment occurred, according to Miss Goodrich, when she was in the first grade. A Bohemian boy, who was decidedly disliked, looked at Miss Goodrich and placed his hand against his lips and flashed it away. In order to get even with him she did the same thing. Every one began to scream, "Oh, Lois, you threw a kiss at him," and she, for the first time, realized how kisses were thrown.

Her favorite movie stars are Ann Harding and Lionel Barrymore.

She has had charge of the Girl Scouts of Canyon for the last five years.

She has traveled a great deal in the east and has been in Canada and Mexico.

Her hobbies are Girl Scouting, collecting cactus, and collecting poetry.

Twamana Club Gives Cousins Fruit Shower

The Twamana club gave Lee Christine Cousins, who is recovering from an appendicitis operation, a fruit shower, Friday, February 2. The President, Laura Ferne Brian, and the secretary, Claudia Fay Teal decorated a box and filled it with fruits and candy. This was a surprise shower for Lee Christine.

The following people donated fruit for the shower: Mary May Harrison, Irene Thompson, Sis Overton, Claudia Fay Teal, Gladys McBride, Laura Ferne Brian, Edith Steeg, and Miss Murrell.

The regular meeting of the club was held Tuesday, Feb. 6, at 3:00. A hash program was the entertainment. Slips of paper were passed to each member. Some of the slips read:

"Tell of your most embarrassing moment."

"Sing a solo."

"Give a reading."

"Tell of the Twamana girls' place in the school."

Friona Indians Scalp Eagles

Both Eagle teams came home Tuesday night, Jan. 30, with their tail feathers dragging.

The girls were defeated 9 points, the score being 21-12.

The boys were downed by a margin of only one point. The score was 14-15.

Mable Schmitz, Dora Mae Plaster, and Velma Crawford must have been "off" on their goal shooting as they had a very difficult time in finding the basket. Several substitutes were used.

The first half of the boys' game was rather one-sided, the score being 9-3 in Friona's favor. The Eagles forged to the lead in the fourth quarter. The one point lead was scored for the Chiefs in the last few seconds of the game when the referee presented them with four free tries. They made three of them.

There was only one substitution during the game. Solomon was put in in Alton Brasuel's place. Brasuel came back, however, early in the third quarter in Captain Williams' place.

Superintendents Commend C.H.S. "Eagle's Tale"

Several letters of commendation on The Eagles Tale have been received by Mr. Carruth from superintendents of other Panhandle schools. These letters have also asked for information regarding the publication of the paper, so that similar papers may be organized.

The Eagles Tale sincerely appreciates this recognition and hopes that it is merited.

Spanish Students Give Play at Club Meeting

The Spanish Club met Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. A very interesting program was given. A play, entitled, "Un Norte Americano en Mexico" was the main attraction. It showed the troubles of a young American boy in Mexico trying to speak to the Mexicans when he knew nothing of the language. The characters were: Fred, the young American, Frieda Lowrie, Roberto, Winnie Dee Hicks; Pablo, Irene Mullins; Juan, Billie Bee Fletcher; Maria, Geraldine Heath; El Palicia, Laura Ferne Brian.

After the program, delicious refreshments of chili and crackers were served.

CARRUTH CAUTIONS STUDENTS ABOUT EPIDEMIC

Mr. Carruth announced Friday that slight case of the "Pink Eye" epidemic was in school. After sending several pupils home, he cautioned all those who were troubled with their eyes to remain at home a few days. Since the disease is easily spread, Mr. Carruth urged all pupils to guard against it.

Robert Bellah, a fourth grade student, had an operation for appendicitis, Friday, Feb. 2. He is now at St. Anthony's hospital in Amarillo, and is improving rapidly.

High School Cagers to Meet Hereford in Doubleheader

The long time rivals, Canyon Eagles and Hereford Whitefaces, will meet in double header cage battles here Saturday night.

The Eagles met the Whitefaces January 23, at Hereford. At that time the Eaglettes defeated the Hereford feminine cagers to the tune of 25-22. The Eagles suffered defeat by the narrow margin of 31 to 29.

This game promises to be an outstanding game of the year. The girls will endeavor to carry off a large majority, and the boys will probably hold their own.

Who! Eagles vs. Whitefaces. Where! Eagle Gym. When! Saturday night at 7:30. How! In a fast and thrilling game.

Grade Students Write Poetry

The fifth grade has shown quite an interest in poetry, and a few of the students tried their hands at writing poems. The following are examples of their work:

The Snow
By Anna Ruth Schmitz, 5A

The wind blows the snow,
Oh! What a show!
Like arrows coming from a bow,
Coming just so.

The Stars

BULLETIN BOARD CREATES INTEREST ON MONDAY

If you stand in the hall somewhere in sight of the bulletin board any Monday morning, you will see a large gathering of eager students. It seems that the students always get to school as early as possible on Mondays in order to find if their names appear on the list to meet the afternoon session from three to four o'clock for study that week. You may hear groans or you may hear sighs of relief; it just depends on what the students read on the board. The taller ones stand back and look over the smaller ones, or the smaller ones that can't see will crowd through, stand on tiptoes, crane their necks, or ask some one near them if their names are on the list. Some of them, who are near the border line of failure, have such a Monday morning habit of stretching their necks, that if they don't get to work and feel assured their names aren't on the list, they will probably have to be wearing a weight on their heads to keep their normal proportions.

When I made out my program last fall I went to each of my teachers, and told them what a good record I had in their subject. I offered to assist them in making lesson plans, and to enlighten them on anything they didn't know about the subject, reassuring them that I might be able to learn a little more about the subject. I went to the next teacher. Against the will of most of the teachers I always sit on the front seat; especially in math classes where I usually help the teachers out on problems they can't work.

WHY I AM SO POPULAR IN CANYON HIGH (By a Student)

In most cases I am willing to stay in afternoons and assist my teachers, but if they try to force me to I always remind them of my influence with the school board. They are always pleased to let me go, after begging my forgiveness. Of course it is impossible for me to belong to all the clubs and organizations which want me for a member, but I always give them advice on how to run their business. When the Commercial Law course was offered I proved of great value, being the old student who wished to take it that had enough brains to know that the word court, used in law, had nothing to do with courtship or love. By giving this information to most of the student body I prevented the Commercial Law class from being too crowded.

The reason I am so popular with the faculty is that when they tell a joke I always give a big "horse laugh." This often gives the teacher the big-head, nevertheless it increases my popularity.

I could give a lot more advice on how to make A's and how to be popular, but this much will prove of great value to most students.

Colonel Coppock to Speak Thursday in Educational Aud.

Colonel Coppock will speak Thursday night at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Education Building. His subject will be "A Day in an Army Camp." The Colonel will be accompanied by his bugler, Mr. Ambler, who will illustrate some of the many bugle calls used in daily army life. A special invitation is extended to all Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and members of the American History Department of the Canyon High School, but all others who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

MATADORS SPLIT SERIES; BUFF TRADITION UPHELD

No Tech Team Has Taken A Two-Game Series From Herd

Becoming the third team from their college in eight years to win a game from the Buffaloes on their home floor, the mighty Matadors from Texas Tech split a two game series here last week, winning the last game 29-22, and dropping the first by a 23-22 margin.

The Buffaloes were playing good basketball both games, but let up in the last half of the second game and lost their lead never to regain it.

The first game was a nerve-racking thriller, especially during the last half when the score seemed from one team to another. Stroud started the game off right by sinking a free shot, then McMinn looped in a goal to give the Buffs a lead they kept the first half, the score at the end of the period being 13-8.

Last Half Thrilling

Things began to stir in the last half. Priddy, star guard and critic from Tech, sank a field goal early in the period to begin the race. Phillips sank a charity toss, but Gilmore and Crews evened the count at 14 all with two shots through the basket; then Crews looped in another to give Tech the only lead they held during the game. Phillips and McMinn dropped in three charity shots to take the lead, but Priddy sank a gratis and evened the count at 17. Stroud sank a field shot, but Crews retaliated and tied the score again. Then Phillips and Stroud dropped two long ones in to finish the Herd's scoring. Gilmore and Crews made three free shots, but could not sink the one field goal necessary to win the game.

In the second game, the first half was the thriller. Each team sank a shot as soon as the other took the lead, until late in the half, by virtue of the Crews brothers two charity tosses, the Matadors took a one point lead. Just before the gun Richards looped in a long one to give the Bison Herd a 15-14 lead at the half.

The boys from Lubbock came back like wildfire, though and took a large lead that the Buffs could not overcome. The Matadors made 15 points to the Buffs' 7 in the last half.

Stroud Shows Up Well

No small feature of the games was Captain Stroud's magnificent playing. During the last game he broke up a great many of the Tech quint's plays. At the same time that he was watching the ball and ruining many of the Lubbock boys' chances to score, he kept Robison, the Red and White's hot long shot artist, from scoring more than two points during the entire series. Wester, a substitute for Robison who played the last half of the final game, managed to score a field goal and two charity shots for four points.

All the Buffs played well, making it hard to say just which ones started. Boedeker, who substituted for Walker at center, stayed with his man and helped to prevent any last minute scoring in the first game. McMinn was going good, both on the defensive and offensive. Richards held A. Crews, Tech hot shot who was high point man in the first game, down to 1 small point in the second.

The Crews brothers and Gilmore were Tech's shining lights on the offense while Priddy did a good job on the defensive and between halves.

Denis To Give Lecture-Recital

Noted Dancer Will Be Assisted By Pianist

Ruth St. Denis, world famous dancer who will appear at the College on the evening of February 13, will give a lecture-recital in which she will speak on "The Dance as a Cultural Force," following it with a group of her best known dances. With her will appear Wells-Hively, noted composer pianist, in the dual role of accompanist and soloist.

Miss St. Denis, long designated as one of the three outstanding exponents of the dance, including Anna Pavlova and Isador Duncan, embarked on a lecture-recital tour in 1931. So pronounced has been her success that she has filled more than twenty-five such engagements within the metropolitan area of New York alone.

Miss St. Denis, say many prominent critics, must not be confused with the rank and file of lecturers for, in addition to being a most delightful and informative speaker whose remarks are always spiced with a rich vein of humor, she is everywhere acknowledged to be one of the world's foremost artists. The fact that she follows her talk with a group of her most famous dances, places the event on a plane apart from the average lecture or lecture-recital.

CHARGES FILED IN THE JUSTICE COURT

Three charges of drunkenness and two on car license plates were filed in justice court this week.

Sid Wheat and Chilly Woods were up for drunkenness Saturday. Mike Crawford, Opal Stockton, Lillian Blair, Edna Apple and Mary Anderson, all of Amarillo, were arrested by Shorty McCormick on the same charge.

H. L. Anderson of Littlefield and M. N. Marrs of Fort Worth were arrested on license charges.

SOME WHEAT IS STILL LOOKING VERY GOOD

J. E. Dickinson was in the News office Saturday and stated that while his late wheat was practically all dead, that the early wheat looked very good, and showed a possibility of making grain if rain came at once.

Nick Hollenstein states that the rabbits are working on his wheat and that he is not expecting much returns.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Judge C. B. Reeder of Amarillo will speak at the First Christian Church Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock service.

George E. Nason Ends Work in Texas on State Parks

George Nason was here Friday closing his work with the Texas Parks Board. He was on his way to Denver to end his contract with the Department of Interior, National Park Service, having accepted a position with the Minnesota State Highway department.

Mr. Nason has been in Texas for four months, and has given particular attention to the Palo Duro State Park.

While his successor has not yet been named, it is believed that some park official from the Denver office will be sent to Texas to work with the Texas Parks Board.

Mr. Nason is highly impressed with the possibilities of the Palo Duro, and had charge of planning the development of the park.

HAS OPERATION

Birds

birds. He never kills a bird unnecessarily. In reporting his summer's work, Carlander wrote: "I should like to suggest to everyone in the Panhandle that the birds should be better protected. Many ignorant and misinformed people kill the small song birds, although all of them are protected by law. These song birds help mankind in many ways. I estimate that two common Panhandle birds, the horned lark or 'wheat bird,' and the western sparrow eat 12,000,000 pounds of weed seeds per year. This estimate is based on the fact that these birds eat one-fourth ounce of weed seeds each day. I estimate that there are an average of fifty birds for each of the 80,000 square miles in the Panhandle and each of these birds stays in the country 200 days per year."

Carlander has not spent a winter in the Panhandle or his estimate might have been higher for horned larks stay in this region the entire twelve months, according to other bird observers.

Best Time to See Birds

Many birds remain in the Panhandle only a short time during the weeks of migration from south to north and from north to south. For this reason the person who wants to know the birds of the region will probably decide that the real "high tide" of bird life here is in the spring and fall since a great number of birds go farther north for the summer and farther south for the colder winter months.

During the three summer months Carlander was at work, he saw an average of 18 different kinds of birds per day; on one day he saw 40. His average was higher from September seventh to fifteenth than at any other time; the southward flight had begun at that time.

"The morning is the best time to look for birds, and it is most discouraging to try to find them in the hot early afternoons," said Mr. Carlander. Birds, like people of the warm regions, are fond of a siesta in the middle hours of the long summer days. However, during the winter months the sunny mid-day hours are often the very best for seeing birds and hearing their calls.

Among the bird specimens which may be seen in the Panhandle-Plains Museum are the cardinal (red bird), mocking bird, killdeer, meadow lark, scissor-tailed flycatcher, yellow headed blackbird, desert horned lark (wheat bird), Texas woodpecker, flicker, barn or monkey-faced owl, chaparral (road runner) cuckoo, and many sparrows.

Some children may see the mocking bird, which is the state bird of Texas, taking its place with the blue bonnet in the affections of the people.

Boy and girl scouts who are trying to learn some of the birds which they see, are especially invited to visit the Museum on Tuesday, Thursday or Sunday afternoon, according to Dr. Angie Debo who has it in charge.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Next Sunday night, Feb. 11th, at eight o'clock, Rev. Warwick Aiken will begin a series of sermons on "Prophecy," at the Episcopal Church. This is a subject to which Mr. Aiken has given much study.

By a singular coincidence, last Sunday night, when the Rev. Lewis Sperry Chafer arose to address the Episcopal congregation, after Mr. Aiken had made his announcement of this coming series, the visiting speaker gave as his subject for the evening, "The Prophecies Contained in the Twenty-Second Psalm." The marvelous address which followed made a startling vivid and interesting introduction to the series already planned.

Dr. Chafer, who spoke with great inspiration and power, made a profound impression upon the large congregation present, most of whom were students. He spoke the next morning at the chapel hour at Wayland College, Plainview.

Everyone is cordially invited to hear Mr. Aiken in this series of sermons, and to worship with this congregation.

Miss Louise Tallafiero, who has been spending some weeks with her sister, Mrs. F. T. Charlton, left last Thursday for Port Arthur, Texas, where she will visit another sister, Mrs. George M. Craig, before returning to her home in San Antonio, Texas.

Superintendent Emmitt Sheld of Quitaque attended to business in Canyon Saturday.

Mrs. Johnnie Price and Mrs. Cecil Gunter, of Amarillo, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Levi Cole.
